South of the Border
2010 Summer Sunset Wine Cruise
July 8th, 2010

On the South of the Border Sunset Cruise we will be tasting the Milagro Tequila line with Jaime Salas, the Milagro Ambassador, aboard the Lobster Tails boat while enjoying a fabulous tasting menu provided by Jubilee Catering. Tickets are available via phone or by stopping by Pioppi's Package Store.

Jaime Salas is a true tequila connoisseur representing a tequila collection featuring more than 300 varieties of the agave based spirit. Raised in San Francisco, Salas and his family took annual trips to Jalisco, Mexico, the birthplace of his mother, throughout his childhood and early adult years. Salas always brought back a bottle of tequila from each trip that he took and he continues to do so today. Recently joining the team as the Milagro Brand Ambassador for the East Coast and Central regions of the U.S., Jaime Salas brings a vast amount of experience and passion to Milagro Tequila. Salas also hosts a variety of tequila dinners, tastings and cocktail competitions and leads numerous brand immersion trips, including account distillery education tours in Mexico. Salas is also heavily involved with the United States Bartender's Guild (New York chapter). His tequila and mixology expertise is consistently featured in media outlets such as XM Radio, Cosmo Radio, The Improper Bostonian and AOL, among others.
