An Elite Scotch Tasting

A Benefit to raise money and awareness of the upcoming Plymouth 400th celebrations

Toastmaster International and Scottish comedian Sir Jeremy Bell has toasted the likes of Clint Eastwood, Rudi Giuliani and Regis Philbin; has given seminars for Wolfgang Puck and Emeril Lagasse; interviewed for the Food Channel and Good Morning America; and bagpipied for Susan Sarandon and Julia Roberts!

Dressed in full highland kilt with bagpipes blaring, he can regale you with hilarious toasts and roasts, while presenting a fascinating Scotch tasting. This tasting showcases blends and single malts from Dalmore, Isle of Jura, Dewers Distilleries and the recently discovered Mackinlay's/Shackelton Rare - 100 year old Old Highland Malt Whisky reproduction.

Sir Ernest Shackleton probably hadn't planned on leaving three crates of Scotch whisky in Antarctica in 1907, and almost certainly never imagined Plymouthians drinking it one hundred years later. But thanks to the 2007 discovery of the 19th century liquor under the floor boards of Shackleton's abandoned Antarctic hut, whisky aficionados in Calgary recently raised a toast to the polar explorer.
